

THE INDEPENDENCE OF JUSTICE IN EUROPE

LAWYERS/MAGISTRATES/DUO/ DUEL

Even if lawyers and magistrates have different professional functions, practices and internal regulations, together they contribute to the independence of justice

Brussels, 26 mai 2018
Maison des associations internationales
40 rue de Washington

With the participation of the lawyers:

Aurore Lebeau,
Pascale Taelman,
Çeren Uysal,
Henri Leclerc,
Mario López de Andújar
Bertrand Courderc,
Robert Sabata i Gripekoven,

and
Dominique Rousseau,
Pau de Vilchez Moragues
Pier Virgilio Dastoli,

With the participation of the judges and magistrates:

Manuela Cadelli,
Anna Adamska-Gallant,
Simone Gaboriau,
Mariasosaria Guglielmi,
Gualtiero Michelini,
Emilio Sánchez Ulled,
Edmondo Bruti Liberati,
Paul Martens,
Filipe Marques

Colloquium organized by the Association of European Democratic Lawyers and the Association of European Magistrates for Democracy and Civil Liberties (MEDEL)

French/English translation
Registration required:
colloque.independance.justice@gmail.com
Contribution 10 €

9h Welcome

9h30 Opening Speech

Aurore Lebeau, president of the SAD and Manuela Cadelli, president of the ASM

10h Introductory remarks: History and function of the independence of Justice
Dominique Rousseau, professor of constitutional law in the University Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, former member of the Superior Council of the Judiciary

10h30 Roundtable 1 – THE CRISIS: TURKEY AND POLAND

Moderator/provocateur: Pascale Taelman, President of the Bar association of Val-de-Marne (France)

Participants: YA, Judge in exile (Turkey), Çeren Uysal, Lawyer (Turkey), Anna Adamska-Gallant, Judge (Poland), Pier Virgilio Dastoli, President of the CIME (Consiglio Italiano del Movimento Europeo)

11h30 coffee break

11h45 Roundtable 2 - LAWYERS VS. MAGISTRATES: THE DUEL

Moderator/provocateur : Simone Gaboriau, former president of the Syndicat de la Magistrature (France)

Participants: Henri Leclerc, Lawyer, Honorary President of the League of Human Rights (France); Mariarosaria Guglielmi, magistrate, Secretary general of Magistratura democratica (Italy)

12h45 Open debate with the public

13h30 - 14h30 lunch

14h30 Roundtable 3 – SELF REGULATION AND RESPONSIBILITY

Moderator /provocateur: Gualtiero Michelini, magistrate, former president of the MEDEL (Italy)

Participants: Bertrand Courderc, former President of the National Council of Bar associations (France), Emilio Sánchez Ulled, former president of the l'Unión Progresista de Fiscales (Spain)

15h30 Roundtable 4 - COMMUNICATION: ON THE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE PUBLIC OPINION

Moderator /provocateur: Edmondo Bruti Liberati, former prosecutor in Milano (Italy) and Mario López de Andújar, Spokesperson of the Asociación libre de abogados y abogadas (Spain)

Participants: Manuela Cadelli, magistrate, president of the Association Syndicale des Magistrats (Belgique),

Pau de Vilchez Moragues, guest professor in the Department of International Public Law of the University of the Balears Islands

16h30 Open debate

17h15 Synthesis:

Paul Martens, former president of the Constitutional Court in Belgium

17h30 Conclusive remarks: Robert Sabata i Gripekoven, president of the AED-EDL and Filipe Marques president of the MEDEL